...And don't forget to pick up some Titan Wear!!!

The Trinity Titans boys basketball teams open their KCAA schedule tonight, hosting the Warriors of Winchester Christian Academy.

In the JV game, the Titans hope to even their record after losing to Lawrenceburg last week. The Titans lost 4 starters off of last year's team. The only returning starter is sophomore Andrew Harris. He and his brother Daniel are the team captains this year. Other projected starters for tonight's game are freshmen Wes Westberry and Chris Barber and 8th grader Mac Holt.

The Boys Varsity is playing its 5th game of the year. The Titans took 2nd place in the KCAA Tip-Off Classic with victories over North Hardin and Bethel before falling to Community in the championship game. Josh Sizemore was named to the All-Tournament Team.

Last week the Titans lost to a veteran Lawrenceburg team dropping their record to 2-2 on the season. The Titans have had to replace 4 senior starters off of last years team, including the Trinity all-time scoring leader Ben Davidson who is now averaging about 9 points per game on the JV team at Covenant College.

Projected starters for tonight game include our lone returning starter, senior Josh Sizemore, juniors KAL Littrell, Thomas Meador, and David Haddock, and sophomore Hayden Gregory. Josh, KAL, and Hayden were named team captains for this year.

Winchester seems to be an improved team from last year as they lost in overtime to eventual champion Community in the Tip-Off Classic semi-final.
